Traditional And Modern Challenge All

Reaching for something new means letting go of the old. An invitation for improvement does have its inhibitions. It is never easy to leave behind the comfort and stability of the familiar for only the risk that the new may be better. Yet, inaction has never been an effective way of bringing about change. Students at Deer Creek this year handled change, not with vegetation, but with the ability to make the most of matters and move ahead.

One can never reach his goal of improvement if the fear of regression stifles aggression.

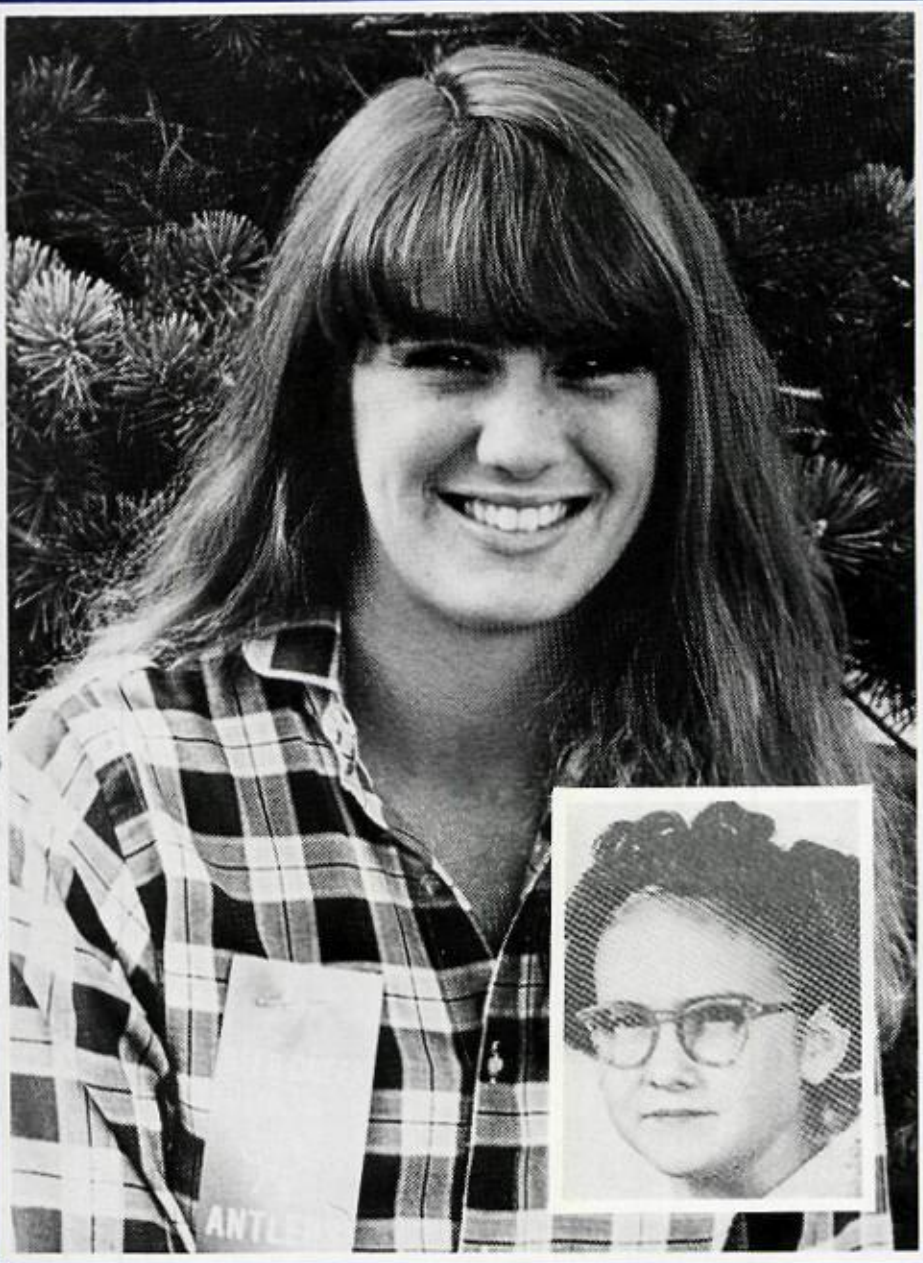

Moving out of the old high School building was both sad and exciting (above right).

What modern students wear to school (right) is quite a change from the early D.C.H.S. days.

One of the most noticeable changes in recent years has been the development of sports cars (above).

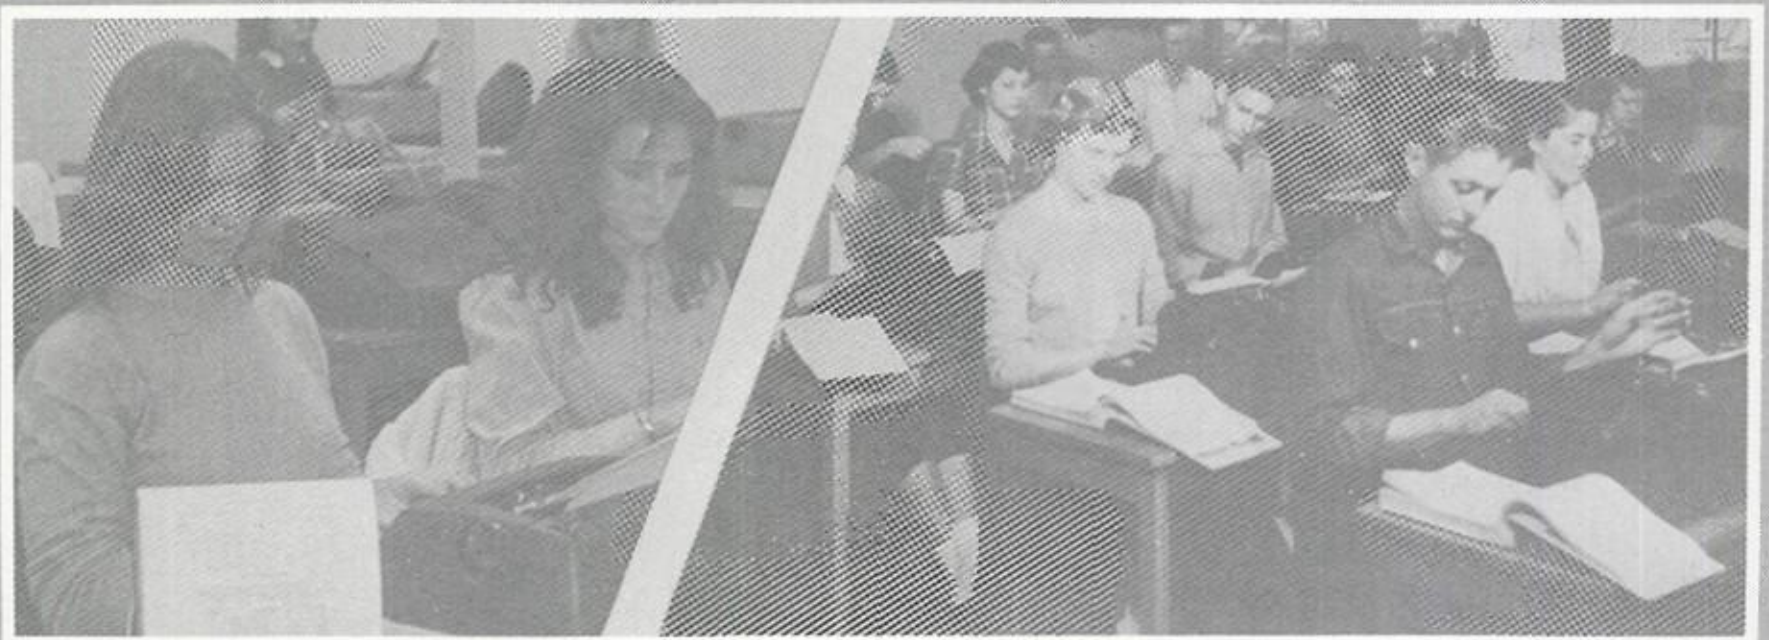

Hair styles (left) have gone from very curly and short in the early fifties to today's popular variations.

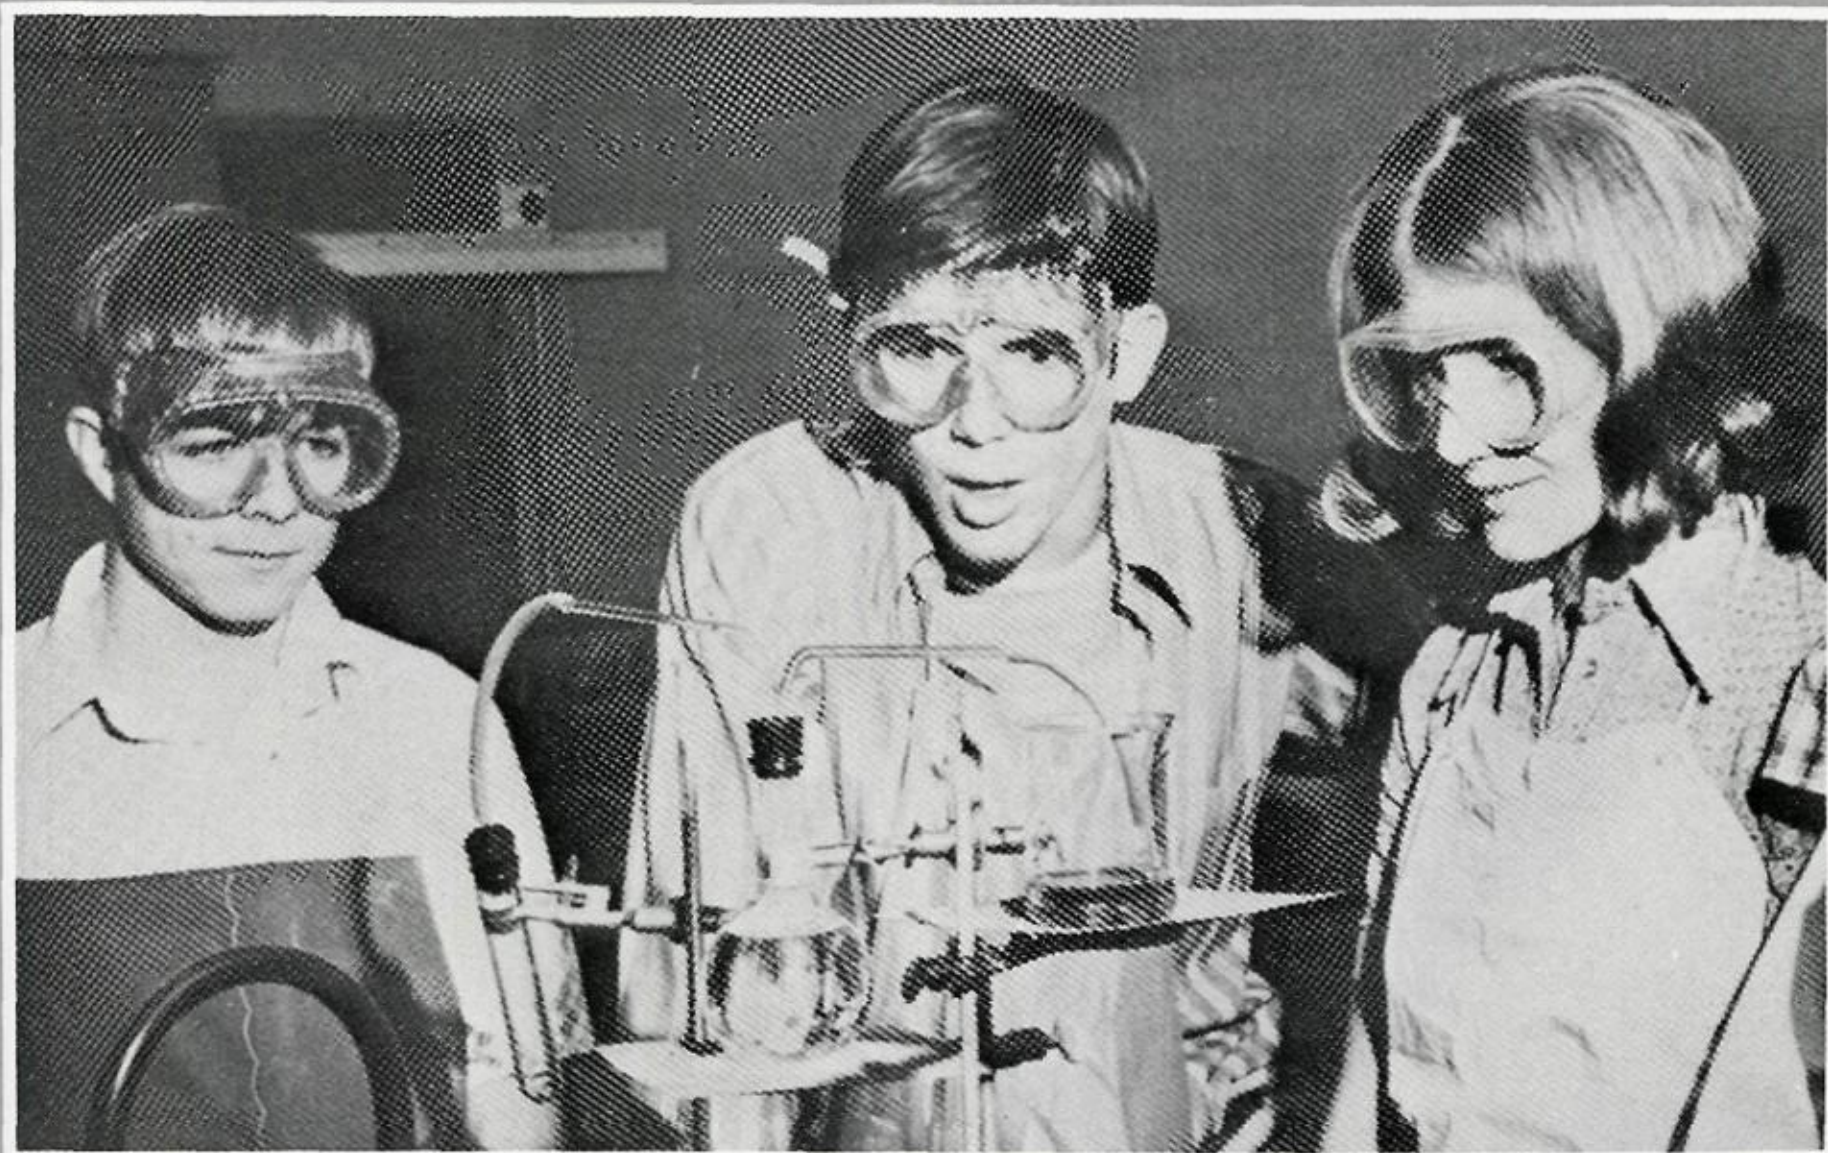

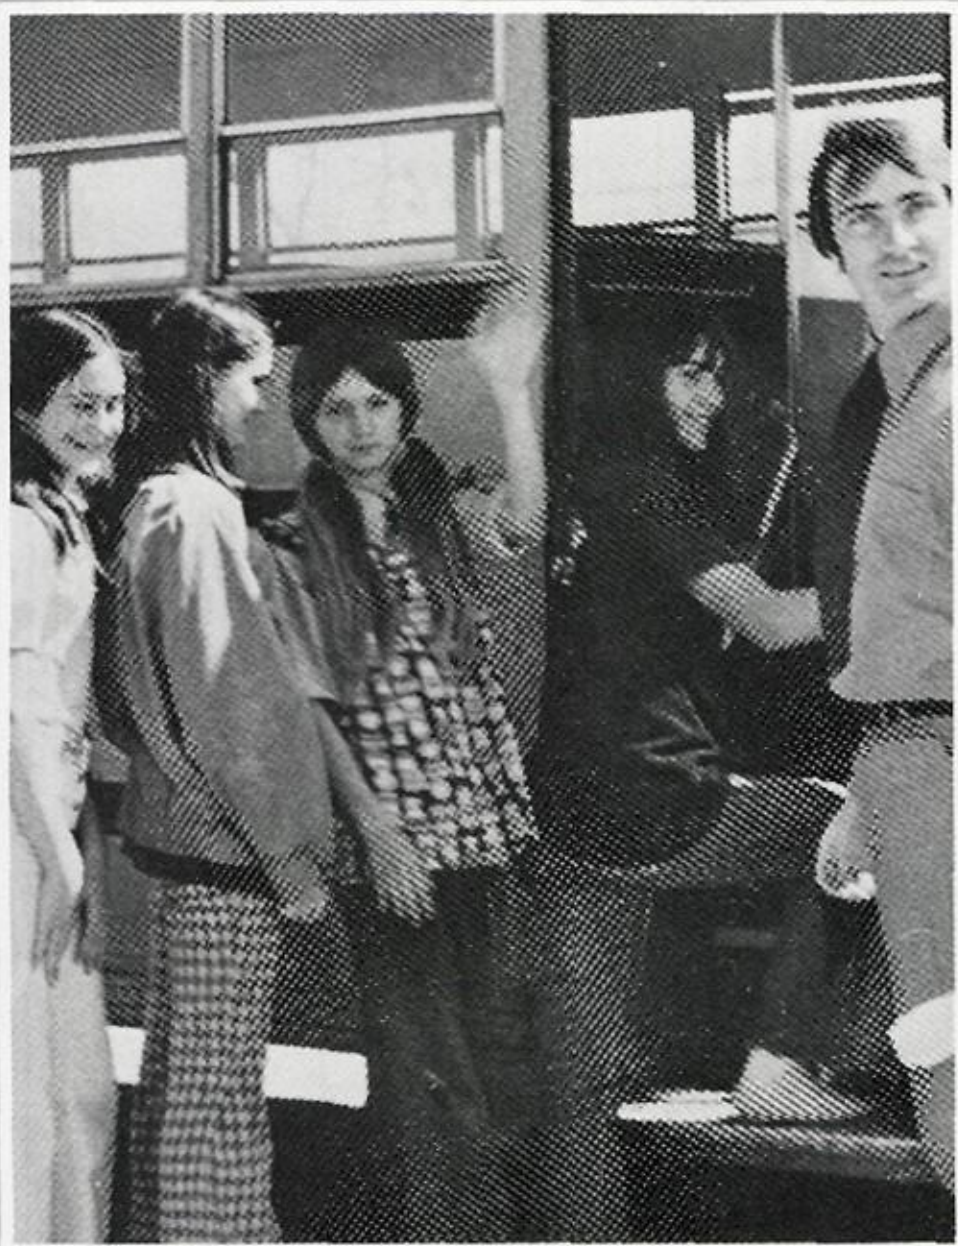

The highlight of the 82-83 year was moving into the long awaited and badly needed new high school building.

DC'ers Enjoy Carnival

What has a dunking booth, a car bash, and a lot of happy people?? — it's the 1982 Deer Creek Carnival. This year's event included such activities as the sponge throw, senior bingo, pony rides and the ring toss. The annual coronation ceremonies capped the evening of festivities.

Horse rides were offered by the Rodeo Association. Above, Michele Hanneman, guides a young rider.

Bad Brent Byler bashes the bug.

Working After Class Offers Challenges

Many Deer Creek students like extra money and, consequently, have jobs after school. They work as salesmen, saleswomen, busboys, construction workers, etc., in the surrounding communities.

Assistant manager Charlotte Bush makes sure everything is in order at Cricket Alley (above right).

Kim Neese (above) closes a sale for Baker's.

An industrious Amy Uhl and Chris Hobson help transport books to the new building (above right).

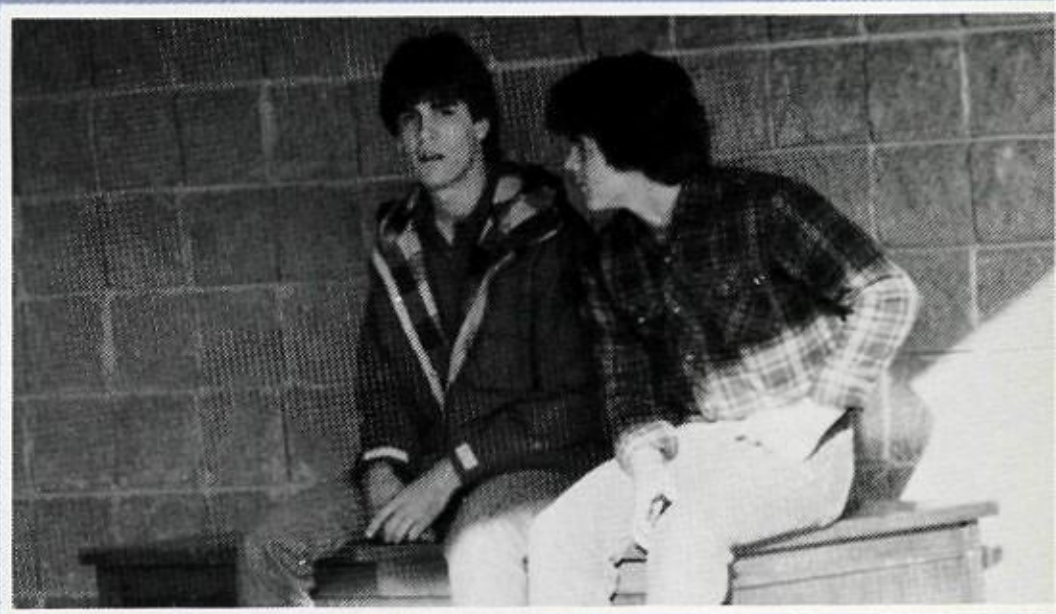

Moving day prompted even Randy Hampton and Robbie Brown (right) to do some work.

Students Get Work-out On Moving Day

After several delays, it finally happened! Moving day arrived at last! On Wednesday, October 13, the students and faculty spent the first three hours of school transporting desks, books, and tables from the old building to the new. Even though it was hectic for a while, the results certainly made the efforts worthwhile.

Mark Williams (above left) like everyone else, gets his locker open on the third or fourth try.

One Acts Presented

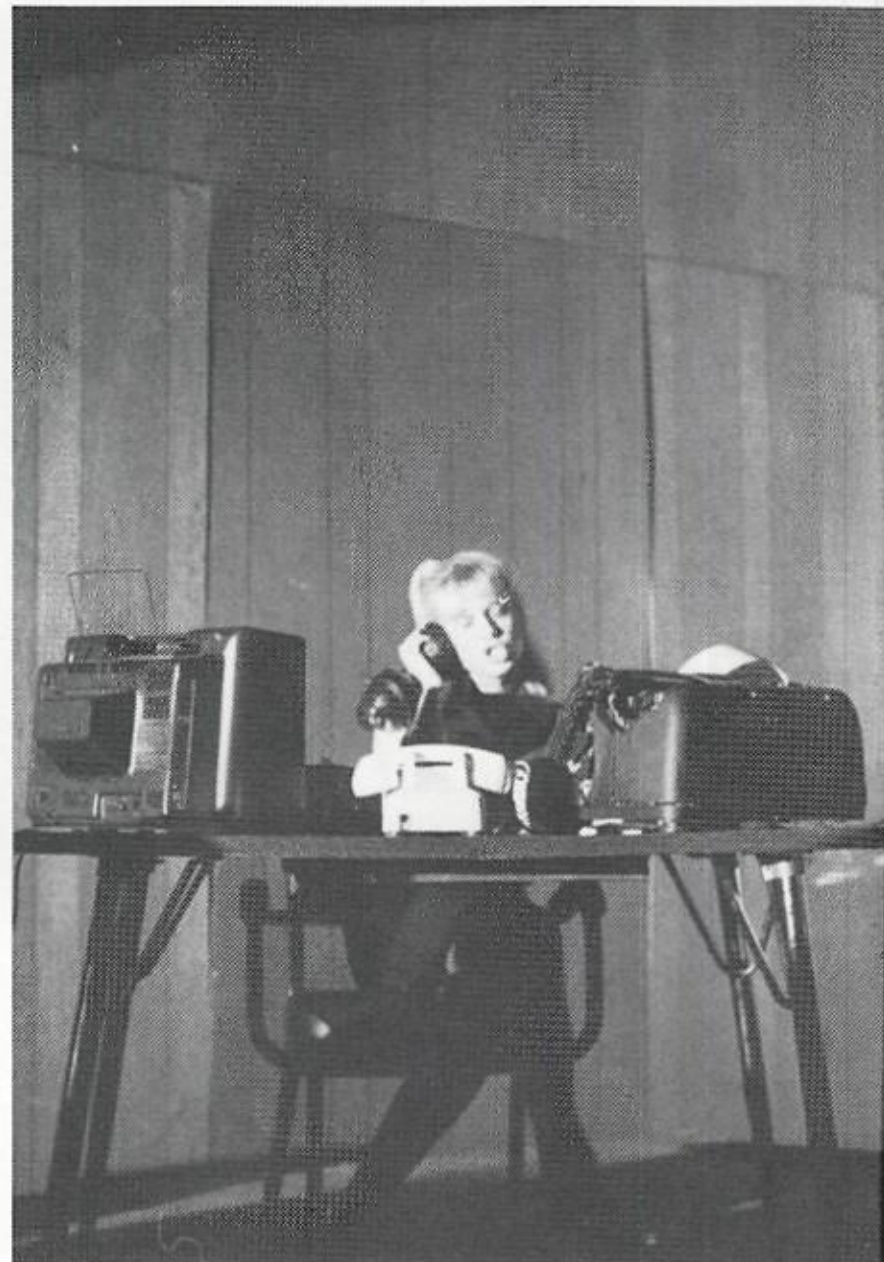

"A Night of One Acts" was presented by Mrs. Jordan's Stage Production classes on Oct. 7, 8, and 9. The plays staged were "Sorry, Wrong Number," a drama; "The Leader," a social satire; a suicidal comedy called "Luv;" "The Lamp went Out," a melodrama; and "Trifles," an example of dramatic irony.

Sybil Kavan (right) helps make the transition from a comedy to a drama between acts.

Tribute Paid to Oklahoma During Diamond Jubilee

The annual dinner theater's theme was a tribute to Oklahoma's 75th anniversary. It featured the two stage production classes and was divided into four segments including Indians, Cowboys and Outlaws, Pioneers, and Sports. It was the first production in the new Fine Arts building.

Laura Young and Talley Thompson (left) pose as the "Pioneer Woman and Son."

Below left male vocalists Phil Copeland and Trent Russell sing the popular "You're the Reason God Make Oklahoma."

Country Western dancers entertained with a little "Two Steppin'" at the dinner theater.

After A Long Week Of School, Students . . .

Each day of school hosts a variety of activities. After the first three hours of class, some students retreat to the library to play their favorite video games, while others concentrate on studying or eating Mrs. Fleming's famous doughnuts. But, the main activity is socializing. Either inside or out, it is exercise time for social butterflies. Then it's back to class. Some students have to brave the weather and hike over to the new Fine Arts Center or marathon over to the gym. All in all, this year's students are getting in shape.

Talented Students Featured In "West Side Story"

The major musical production of 1983 was "West Side Story" which starred Kurt McGraw and Christine Stegmann in debut roles. Dixie Jordan directed the cast of 58, and despite many technical difficulties, the musical was a huge success.

Maria (left) begs God to let her brother be alive.

Bernardo and Anita (played by Jeanie Lawson) add to the lyrics of "Tonight" (left).

Juniors Host A Prom To Be Remembered ‘Through The Years’

“Through the Years,” the 1983 Junior-Senior Prom was held at Quail Creek Country Club and included a banquet and valet parking. The junior prophecies, read by Jerretta Furr and Brent Turrentine, anticipated some wonderful events for the seniors, while the senior wills, read by Shelly Lambert and Robert Medley, left behind some unique qualities for future seniors. Ronnie Kaye of WKY Radio provided music throughout the evening.

Enterprising Jrs. Have Profitable Year

As the Junior Class prepares to throw the biggest and best prom and dinner on the century, they find themselves busy selling many items. They offered donuts in the morning and at lunch, Christmas wrapping paper, class charms, chances on an OU football, magazines, cards, and personalized prom glasses. In addition to salesmanship, they are masters in class, especially English where they read The Scarlet Letter. Trying to make it through the eleventh grade is tough for anyone, but these Juniors are getting through with style.

Antlers Struggle Through 1982 Season

The Deer Creek Antler football team finished the season at 3-7 under new head coach Dale Buck. The Antlers struggled throughout the season and for the first time in five years didn't make the post season playoffs. The Antlers are losing six starters. One of these is Little All-City defensive player Rick Buck. Returning next year to guide the Antlers are Little All-City offensive player Wade Hundley and honorable mention player Brent Turrentine.

Lady Antlers . . .

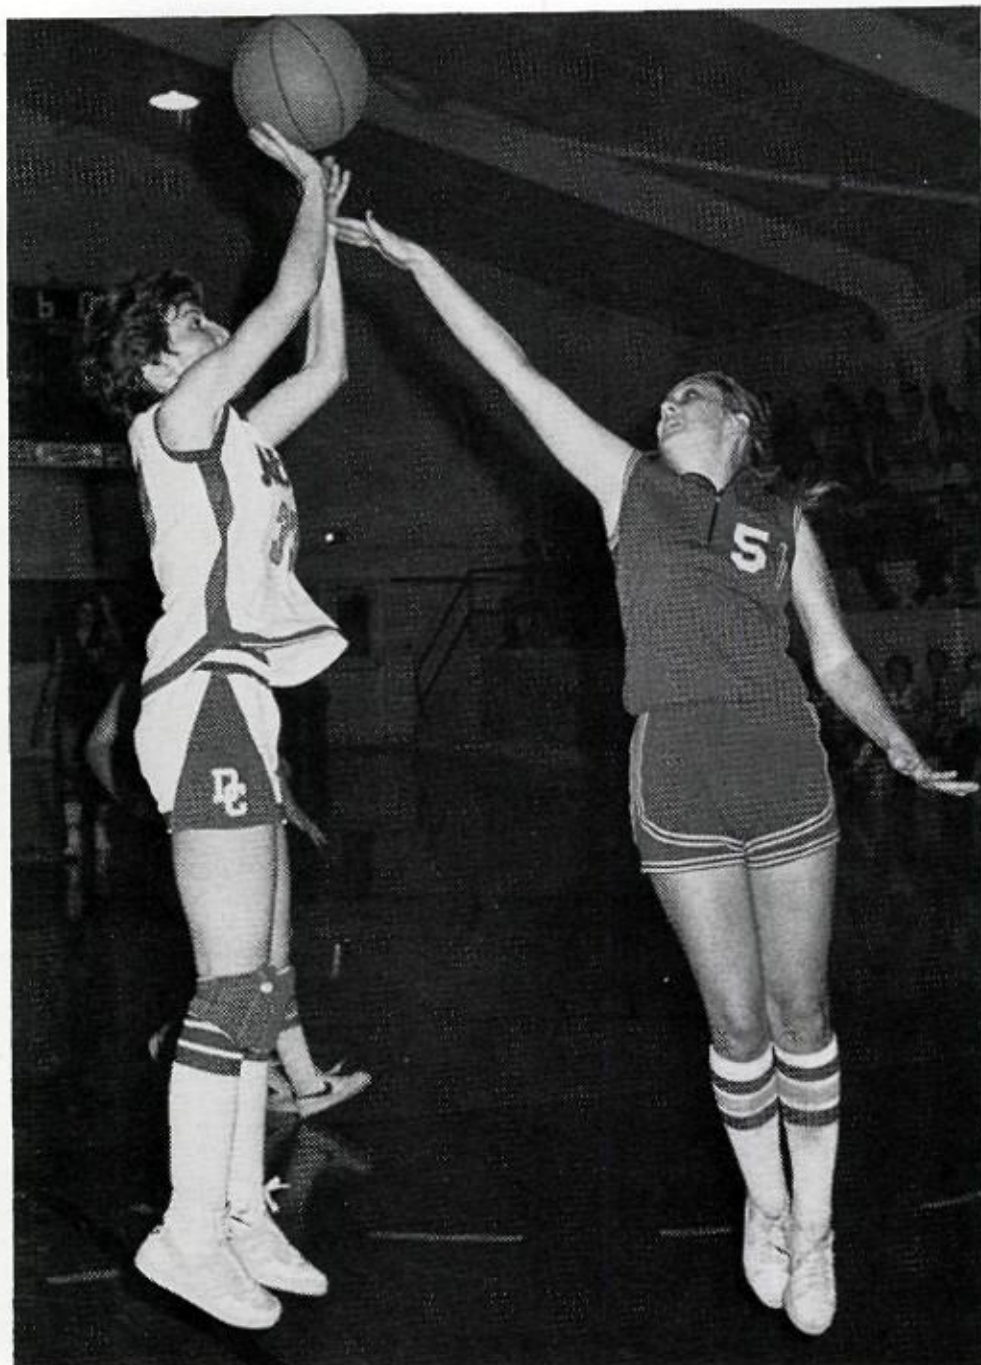

The 1982-83 Lady Antlers marked an impressive 15-9 record. Before Christmas break the girls were 6-2, losing only to powerhouses Dale and Okarche. After break, the DC girls prepared themselves for the long road to playoffs.

During the regular season the Lady Antlers competed in the OBU Invitational, the Tournament of Champions at Del City, and two festivals. They also defeated Okarche which hadn't been done by the Lady Antlers in 11 years.

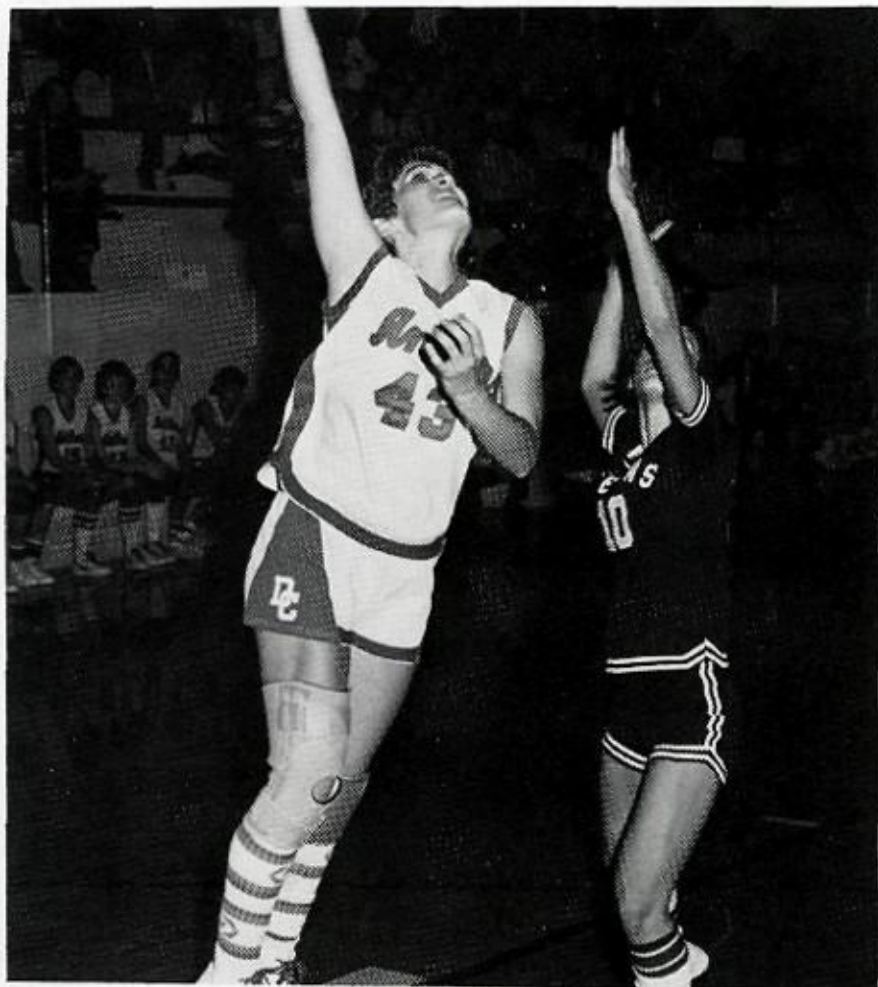

Although eliminated in regionals, many individuals were honored for outstanding play. Named to the All Conference team were Traci Wheeler, Darlene Stutte, and Rhonda Lynch. Lynch also made the All-Tournament teams at Del City and OBU. Lorrie Ward was also named to the OBU All-Tourney team and Chere Wishon received honorable mention in the conference.

The Lady Antlers will be playing in the Western Okla. Tournament at Sayer next year.

Antlers Play Tough, Finish Year 12-15

The 1982-83 Antler varsity basketball team gained valuable experience by playing 5A powers Tulsa Union and Tulsa Hale. The 2A contenders finished the season at 12-15, but played in three very intense games in which they were defeated by only one point. A rebuilding year after participating in the state finals in '82 saw Coach Branam starting one freshman and two sophomores alongside the more seasoned junior and senior players. The Antlers will be losing starters Terry Walker and Ron Neese along with Rick Buck and Robbie Brown to graduation. However, with the lessons learned this year, 1984 will challenge DC to again be in the thick of competition.

2nd Year Wrestling Brings Success

This year the Antler Wrestling team went through much change and improvement. Under the direction of Head Coach Dennis Adams the team went 5 — 6 and placed several wrestlers in tournaments. Coach Adams, who was a two time state champion and one time state runner-up in high school wrestling, worked hard his first year at Deer Creek establishing a firm foundation, although he had to work without assistance and worked with both high school and junior high. Looking ahead, Coach Adams will have a more experienced team back and isn't losing anyone to graduation. Ninth graders Jay Thompson and Steve Spinks both placed this year in Junior High State Tournaments (Jay, 1st and Steve 2nd) and these two will join the varsity team of 83-84.

Problems Plague The '83 Baseball Season

The Deer Creek varsity baseball team had numerous problems throughout the '83 season. The Antlers finished the year at 4-15 under new head coach Dick Bergland. The Anglers consistently played strong the first three innings, but began to weaken in later innings. The DC team was plagued with errors and bad luck. Six of the games were lost by one run in the bottom of the seventh inning. Leading the team was Senior Randy Hampton with five homeruns, and Brent Turrentine who led the team batting average.

Deer Creek High School
Deer Creek, Oklahoma

Dear Students:

If your coach did not show up for practice
If your teacher did not come to class
If your minister did not come to church on Sunday
If you Mom did not prepare dinner
If your Dad did not pay the bills
If your friend did not help you in a time of need
If the sun did not rise

Do we sometimes take people and our faith for granted? When was the last time we told someone how much we appreciated what they do for us?

Dedicate yourselves to the principle of saying "Thank You".

If we continue to take people and things for granted, we will have no one to share our hopes, dreams, ambitions, and successes with.

Good Luck in 1983,

J. F. Roy
President

Nothing in the world can take the place of Persistence:
Talent will not, Nothing is more common than talented failure; Genius will not, unrewarded genius is almost a proverb; Education will not, the world is full of educated derelicts; Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.
